

Study in Cambridge

A world-class university city

Cambridge is a historic university city with a global reputation for academic excellence. Over a fifth of its residents are students, giving the city a modern, cosmopolitan feel, and the streets are full of fascinating museums, diverse restaurants and quirky shops.

5 things to do in Cambridge

- 1. Try punting - the most traditional Cambridge activity. The city is at its most beautiful when viewed from aboard a punt.
- 2. Visit Grantchester Meadows - a perfect way to spend a Summer's afternoon. Have a picnic on the meadows, then visit The Orchard Tea Gardens for a traditional cream tea.
- 3. Go shopping - find everything from well-known brands to chic independent stores and local arts and crafts.
- 4. Walk along 'The Backs' - stroll along the historic backs of the Cambridge colleges and follow in the footsteps of their world-famous alumni.
- 5. Enjoy some entertainment - watch live music or a play at one of the city's theatres and venues. If you're here in the Summer, don't miss the chance to see a Shakespeare play in the private garden of one of the Cambridge colleges.

Frank Pinner

Principal, Bell Cambridge

I am very proud to be responsible for the many students from all over the world who choose to study at this fabulous campus each year.

My role here can be explained quite easily – to make sure each and every student who comes to the school achieves their goals and becomes the best they can be.

I hope that you will follow the many successful students who have come to Bell Cambridge since 1955, and I look forward to welcoming you personally when you do!

Bell Cambridge campus

A historic school set in beautiful grounds

Our Cambridge school offers a picturesque study environment and a supportive student community. Located within easy reach of the historic city centre, it features impressive study, social and leisure facilities including a large contemporary learning centre, student games room and indoor and outdoor dining areas.

Sara-Shanti Tamby

Student services manager, Bell Cambridge

I meet with every student at the end of their first day to find out how the day went. Students are given lots of opportunity to feed back and share any concerns they may have. All staff work closely together to ensure that students are supported and happy throughout their stay.
